

Weekly Hawk Happenings

June 11, 2015

Note from the Principal

I can't believe that we are at the end of the school year. Our wonderful 8th graders are graduating this evening. The event will be held at 7:00 pm in the Holy Rosary auditorium. Please join us in celebrating this special evening. We are so proud of all they have accomplished. Also, we wish them well in the important years ahead. Here is where they are heading next year:

Bellarmino - Joseph, Elisa, Chris, Thomas, Vincent, Fernando
Stadium - Maddy, Cynthia, Crystal, Mike
SAMI - Daija
Franklin Pierce - Tyler
Mt. Tahoma - Fabian
Gig Harbor - Zach
Undecided - Sionnie, Raquel, Devon

To the graduates, I say, follow the advice of the Bible:

"Entrust your works to the Lord, and your plans will succeed." - Proverbs 16:3

We are also pleased that, with the exit of our amazing 8th graders, we are blessed with a 7th grade class filled with leaders. Recently, we celebrated service awards with other schools in the Seattle Archdiocese. The following students were honored:

Leadership in Faith - Sylvan
Leadership in Academic Achievement - Juliana
Leadership in Community Service - Josselyn
Leadership in Co-Curricular Activities - Saul

Additionally, we have chosen our Student Council Officers for the 2015-16 school year. They are:

President - Juliana
Vice-President - Kate
Public Relations - Josselyn
Activities Director - Sylvan
Service Director - Miguel
Underclass Liaison - Erandy

Congratulations and thanks for stepping into these leadership roles. Have a wonderful week and enjoy this beautiful weather!
