

Weekly Hawk Happenings

February 12, 2015

Note from the Principal

Starting Monday, February 23rd we will host “Muffin Mondays”. We will serve coffee and muffins on Monday mornings from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. This will be a time to meet informally to ask questions and seek answers to general questions. Please remember if you have a specific question, you are always invited to make an appointment to meet with me privately.

I hope you enjoy the four day weekend! We are looking forward to the rest. Over the weekend, please check your children’s hair for lice. Unfortunately, this is common and spreads easily in elementary schools. If you have questions please check out this website:

Important Information

- Come peruse our library book sale! The library is undergoing big changes. Help us find new homes for some great books. All books are .50 each and there is no limit to how many you can buy. Bring a bag and some spare change, and add some books to your family's permanent collection. There should be something for all ages: picture books, chapter books, early readers, and juvenile fiction in varying quantities. Book sale is on the honor system, please turn your money into the office.
- Notice from our Bookkeeper If you have charges outstanding from December and earlier for band, extended care, and meals, all payments are due by Friday, March 13th. If payment is not received, your child will no longer be able to participate in these programs. Contact Kelly Robertson, bookkeeper, at finance@hrrsjda.org if you have questions about your account. All account statements will be sent home Thursday February 19th in your child's communication envelope.
